MBA 602 – Human Resources Management

Basic Information

Course Title:	Human Resources Management
Code:	MBA: 602
Hours:	Lecture: 3	Credit Hours: 3
Academic Year / Level:	Year: 1	Term: 2

1-Course Description and Overall Objectives:

This course will introduce and overview the major topics in Human Resource Management (HRM). HRM is a fundamental component of the competitiveness, effectiveness, and sustainability of any organization, as it influences who is hired, how they are trained, evaluated, compensated, and what steps are taken to retain them. In turn, HRM plays a critical role in predicting employees' behavior, attitudes, and performance. In other words, if an organization wants good people, it must practice good HRM. Throughout this course, we will be covering many topics related to HRM. We will start by examining the holistic context and role of HRM. Afterwards, we will discuss diversity at workplace and the major legislations associated with HRM practices. Next, we will focus on HR planning and job analysis. Then, we will look at various HR practices within the employment cycle, including recruitment and selection, compensation management, performance management, training and development, safety and health and employee relations. Finally, we will highlight the importance of employee engagement and how to minimize employee turnover.

Course Objectives:

A. Describe the field of "human resource management" and understand its relevance to managers and employees in work organizations.
B. Conduct a basic job analysis and apply this understanding of job requirements to other human resource management systems such as selection, performance appraisal, and compensation.
C. Apply relevant theories to the management of people in organizations.
D. Analyze business challenges involving human resource systems.
E. Critically assess and evaluate human resource policies and practices.
F. Analyze the correlation of human resources management and line management as it relates to developing an organizational business partnership.
G. Evaluate the developing role of human resources in the global arena.

2-Intended Learning Outcomes of the Course (ILOs):

(A) Through knowledge and understanding, students will be able to:

(K1) Define what human resources management is
(K2) Identify the goals of human resources management
(K3) List the different theories In Human resources management
(K4) Describe the relationship between HRM and organisational performance
(K5) Describe the role of Human resource manager in global arena

(B) Through intellectual skills, students will be able to:

(I1) Analyze the relationship between HR practices and their outcomes for the individual and the organization
(I2) Assess the major challenges of human resources in the 21st century.
(I3) Examine human resource policies and practices of organizations
(I4) Analyze the role of the HR manager as a strategic partner to manage human resources in the organization.
(I5) Compare different theories in HR

(C) Through professional and practical skills, students will be able to:

(P1) Apply HR Concepts and theories to analyze and improve work situation
(P2) Apply employment discrimination and labor laws to deal effectively with employment issues on the job.
(P3) Evaluate alternative perspectives on HR practices
(P4) Evaluate the developing role of human resources in the global arena.
(P5) Develop and implement criteria for employee selection

(D) Through general and transferable skills, students will be able to:

(G1) Demonstrate the ability to work effectively as part of a group, communication and presentation skills
(G2) Using I Connect effectively

3 - Course Outline:

Week Number 1: Meeting Present and Emerging Strategic Human Resource Challenges

Week Number 2: Managing Work Flows and Conducting Job Analysis

Week Number 3: Understanding Equal Opportunity and the Legal Environment

Week Number 4: Managing Diversity

Week Number 5: Recruiting and Selecting Employees

Week Number 6: Managing Employee Separations, Downsizing, and Outplacement

Week Number 7: First Assessment (Lecture will continue after the assessment)

Week Number 8: Appraising and Managing Performance

Week Number 9: Training the Workforce

Week Number 10: Developing Careers

Week Number 11: Managing Compensation

Week Number 12: Second Assessment (Lecture will continue after the assessment)

Week Number 13: Rewarding Performance

Week Number 14: Developing Employee Relations

Week Number 15: International HRM Challenge

Week Number 16: Final Examination

4-Teaching and Learning Methods:

The course comprises a combination of lectures, direct reading, case studies & projects.
Required facilities: Overhead Projector and Data Show.

5-Student Assessment Methods, Schedule and Grading:

Assessment No.	Type	Start Week No.	Submit Week No.	Weight %
1	First Assessment	1	7	30
2	Second Assessment	8	12	30

3	Final Examination		16	40
Total				100

6 - List of References:

(a) Course Notes:

Notes will be distributed to the students throughout the semester

(b) Essential Books:

Gomez, M., Balkin, D. and Cardy R., Managing Human Resources, 7th Edition, Pearson, 2014.

(c) Recommended Books:

Desseler, G., Human Resources Management, 13th Edition, Pearson: 2012.